CK Performing Arts

At CK Performing arts we provide children with lessons in the performing arts (dance, drama and singing). At our holiday camps the children will participate in a daily morning dance class, including a warm up, technique work and learning a dance routine to the theme of the day.

The children will then participate in either a drama or singing lesson (also based on the theme of the day) in the afternoon, followed by an art and craft activity to finish the day off. The days are very physical, but are super fun and engaging and a must for children who have an interest in the performing arts.
